WM. H. HOWARD, Treasurer.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

Grantham, N. H. Feb. 12, 1906.

We hereby certify that on the above date we examined the account of the selectmen, overseer of poor, treasurer, school treasurer and surveyors, and find them correctly cast and properly vouched for.

JAMES M. HOWE,
HENRY W. HURD,
Auditors.

SCHOOL REPORT.

There has been twenty-seven weeks of schooling in all the schools in town except one in which there have been only twenty-five.

An effort was made not only to furnish good instructions in all the schools but also to prepare the more advanced pupils for high schools or academies. We believe that our schools should give as good preparation for these institutions as the city graded schools.

We recommend that the repairs on the school-houses be completed at once; that the North Grantham school-house be so changed as to furnish an entry and coat-room. This will necessitate the erection of an out-building for the wood. We also recommend that the town purchase the land on which the North Grantham school-house stands with enough adjoining for necessary school purposes.

The Dunbar Hill school property, as per vote of the town, has been sold to Edwin G. Eastman for $15 00.

Respectfully submitted by

GEORGE C. BARTON,
HENRY W. HURD,
MEORA E. HORTON,

Board of Education.
